

WORKSHOP

Mainstreaming DECENT WORK?

Effects, Implications, and Limits of the Decent Work Concept
Twenty Years onwards

University of Fribourg, 28 and 29 November 2019

PER 21, Bd. de Pérolles 90, 1700 Fribourg

Thursday, 28 November 2019, PER 21 (G230)

11:30 Brunch & Networking (Hall G130)

13:00 Welcome

13:15 Tania Ferraro (PRT) – History of the Decent Work concept and research developments: its measurement from the perspective of the Work, Organizational and Personnel Psychology

14:15 Rolf Schmucker (D) – Decent Work and “Gute Arbeit”

15:15 Coffee break

15:45 Daniel Oesch (CH) – Occupational change and Decent Work

16:45 Giuliano Bonoli (CH) – The quality-quantity trade off in job creation processes and the role of public policies

17:45 Coffee break

18:15 Keynote: Olli Kangas (FI) – Social protection, decent and non-decent work: would the universal basic income be a solution to future income security challenges?

Friday, 29 November 2019, PER 21 (F130)

9:00 Osnaide Izquierdo/Nina Jany (CU/CH) – A critical assessment of the Decent Work concept and some evidence from Cuba

10:00 Alex de Ruyter (UK) – Understanding the working conditions of gig workers and Decent Work: Evidence from Indonesia

11:00 Coffee break

11:15 Carmen Ludwig/Edward Webster (D/ZAF) - Decent Work as a diagnostic and organising tool: Experiences from South Africa

12:15 Lunch break

13:30 Eveline Odermatt (CH) – ‘Without Decent Work there is no new decent life’: Employment among formerly resettled refugees in England

14:30 Brigitte Aulenbacher (A) – Decent care at cost of decent work? Contradictions and conflicts in live-in care in Austria and some conclusions for the debate about social inequalities

15:30 Coffee break

15:45 Dominique Anxo (SWE) – Decent Work and Flexicurity in Sweden

16:45 Uma Rani (CH) – Work and income security among workers in on-demand digital economies: Issues and challenges in developing economies

Registration appreciated: nina.jany@unifr.ch