"Whether biotech entrepreneurs want to expand to the USA, they should go on a roadshow like this to develop the various aspects of entrepreneurship in real time."

Those eligible to participate are:

- Founding and managing members of Swiss biotech startups;
- Fundraising and ready to grow business with international investors;
- Building a global biotech startup.

Venture Leaders have a clear-cut goal. They envision themselves as global players and want to take the first step towards their global expansion.

The investor and business development roadshow to hotspots for biotech innovation allows for a deep-dive into the global startup scene and includes public and private pitch sessions, high-level networking opportunities, company visits and individual business development activities.

Venture Leaders Biotech is organized by Venturelab in partnership with Swissnex Boston. The program with a value of CHF 10,000 is offered free of charge to the winner's thanks to the support of Debiopharm, EPF Lausanne, ETH Zurich, EY - Ernst & Young, Kellerhals Carrard, Hansjörg Wyss, Novartis, Swiss Biotech Association, and VISCHER.
