

The background of the poster is a still life painting. On the left, a tall, clear glass vase holds a bouquet of flowers, including several bright yellow-orange flowers and many dark green, rounded leaves. The vase sits on a white, curved surface, possibly a table. To the right of the vase, on the same surface, is a small, dark, oval-shaped plate holding three round, brown objects, possibly fruits or pastries. The background is dark and indistinct.
